ST. JOHN VIANNEY HIGH SCHOOL

His Eminence
JAMES FRANCIS CARDINAL MCINTYRE

My dear Students:

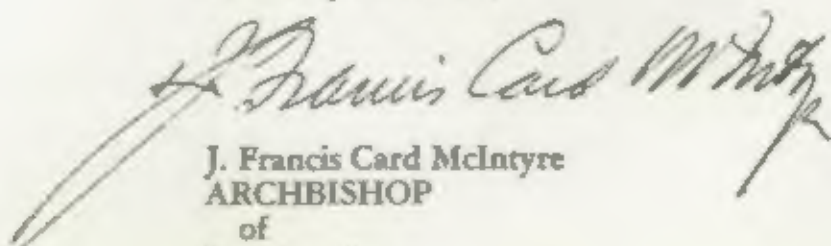

The life of the patron of your High School, St. John Vianney, is an excellent example of human capacity to overcome under the impulse and favor of divine grace, any and all human obstacles.

In the light of his accomplishment through persistent application under the impulse of God's grace, our minor trials of every day life should vanish into space.

He is an admirable patron, and his life exemplifies the virtue of perseverance in an ideal.

Praying for you all blessings, I am

Faithfully in Christ,

VERY REVEREND JOSEPH FULTON, O.P.
Provincial
Province of the Holy Name

My dear Students of St. John Vianney High School:

It is most kind of you to dedicate The Calarogan to me this year. As you know, your annual is named after the birthplace of St. Dominic, Calaruega, Spain. When Dominic was a student like yourselves, we read that he was eager to learn all that could be known of God, His world, and of the great human family dwelling therein. One incident during his student years, however, shows us the outstanding characteristic of the young man who was to become a world-renowned leader of men. Observing the great poverty and suffering of the people during a period of famine, Dominic sold the manuscripts that were so precious to him for his studies, and which he had even annotated with his own hand, and gave the proceeds to the poor. Charity, a love for each individual human person, was the dominant note of his personality. This love he had learned from his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. May this same love take root and flourish in the life of each one of you.

Yours devotedly in Christ,

Joseph Fulton O.P.

We, the students of St. John Vianney High School, humbly dedicate our 1958 CALAROGAN to the Dominican Provincial of the Province of the Holy Name.

The President

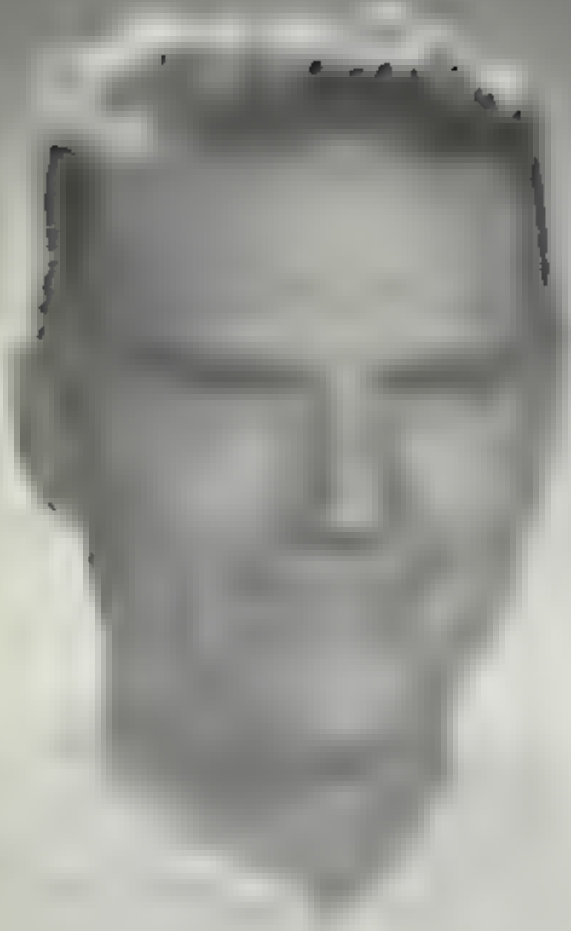

It is with tremendous sense of satisfaction that I congratulate Class of '58 of St. John Vianney High School. For it is the first class to complete four years of study at our young school. We feel that the difficult years of establishing a new school are now past and that with this class we will look forward to an ever increasing success in the academic field. May you reflect honor upon our school in the future by your progress in higher education.

My blessings and a prayer for God's favor upon you in the happy years to come.

Sincerely in Christ,

Rt. Rev. Msgr. James E. Dolan,
President

The Principal

On behalf of the faculty of St. John Vianney High School we offer our sincerest congratulations to the Class of '58. It has been a distinct pleasure working with you and we hope that the cardinal and grey will long linger in your thoughts. In its Latin root meaning, education means to lead or bring out. No doubt you feel you could have done better in the last four years of your high school training. That ~~your~~ best has never been realized. This dissatisfaction with one's self is good. It goads us to greater efforts, to strive for perfection, morally and intellectually. Even St. Thomas Aquinas was never satisfied with his work or his life. We feel, however, that the fundamentals of a happy and healthy Christian life are firmly in your grasp. The faculty and your fellow students of the other classes will be watching your progress in the future. May our Holy Father, St. Dominic, who conceived his mission as a torch lighting the lives of others with the fire of Christ-like activity, inspire you in your efforts to realize the fullness of your potential for goodness, not only in your own life but in influencing the lives of others. May Our Blessed Lord and His Holy Mother guide and protect you.

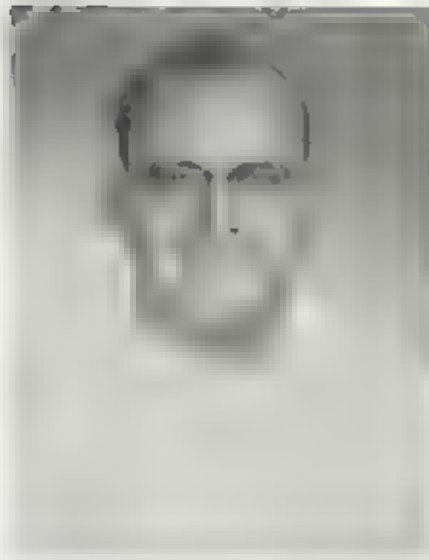

God bless you,

William Moore, O.P.

The Class of '58 reaches the end of its high school career . . . four years . . . gaining knowledge . . . always against a background of the Faith . . . the reason we came to Vianney. We have learned to be good citizens of the Catholic Church . . . and of our country . . . while our minds were being trained. We have been taught to keep our ultimate goal always before us . . . as we perform our allotted tasks of life.

Student Council

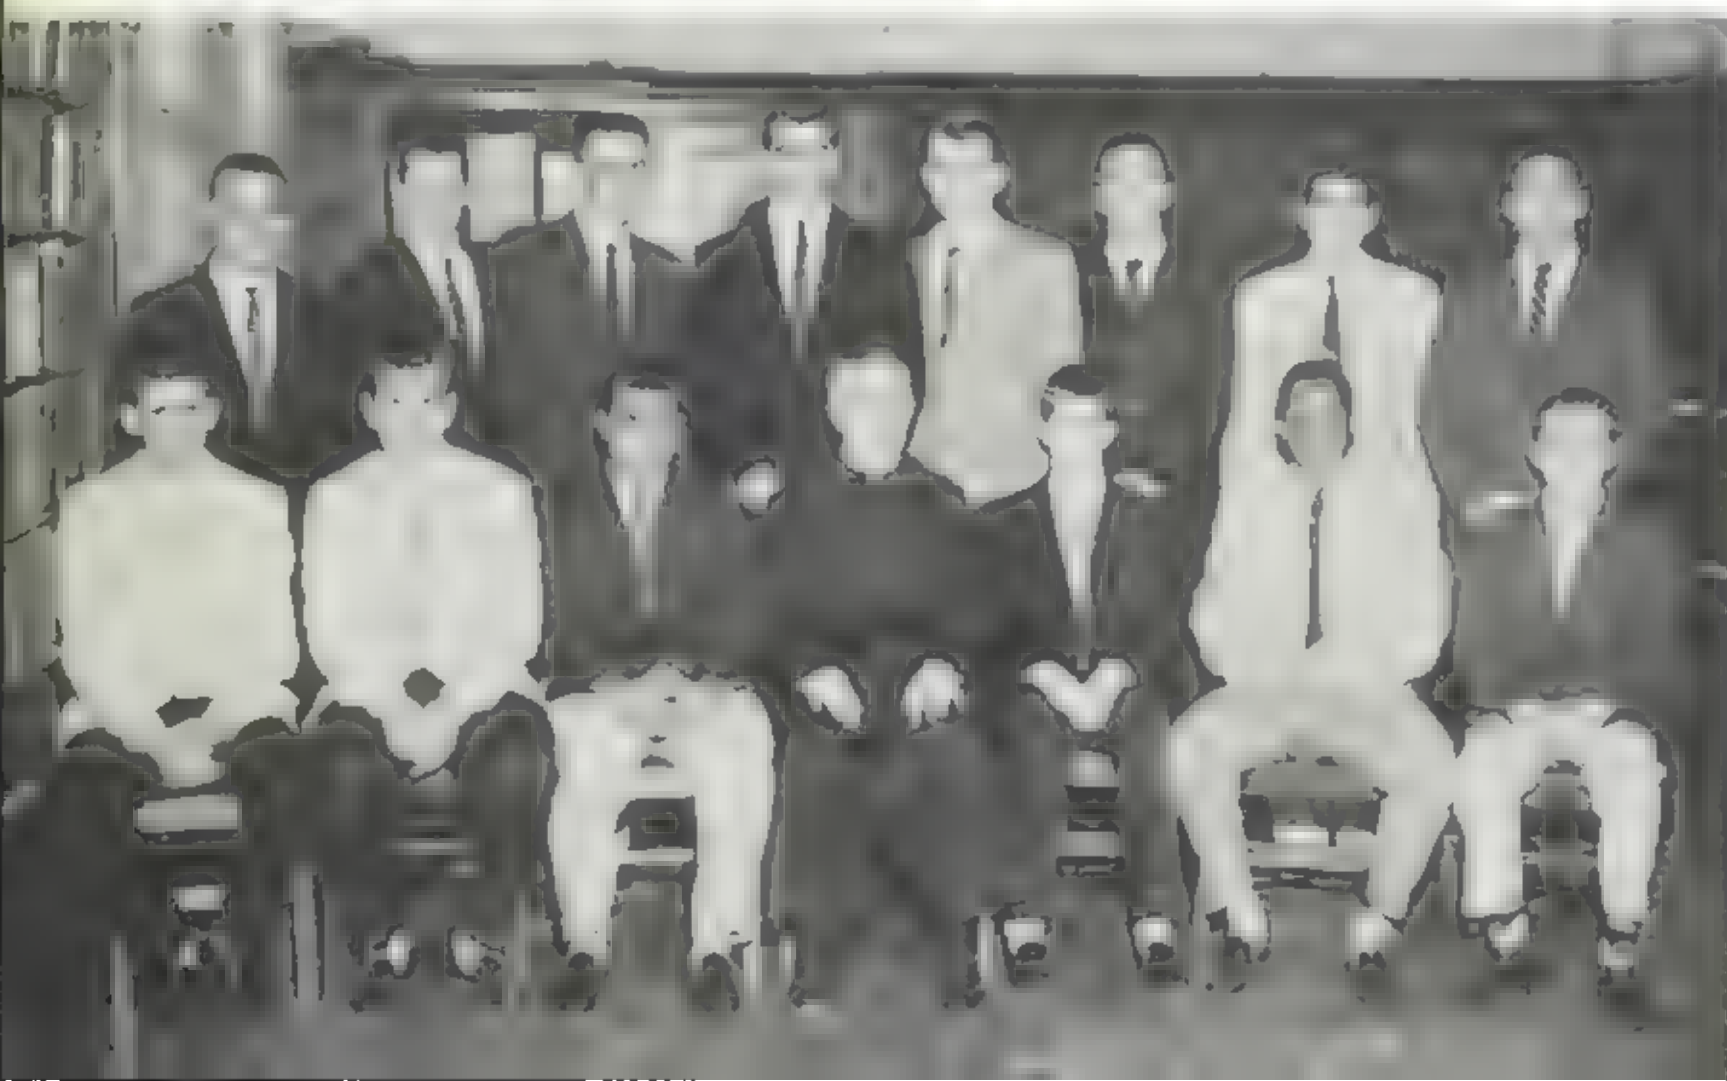

The Student Council has been very busy this year. They have many plans for the future. They have a lot of work to do. They have a lot of things to do. They have a lot of things to do. They have a lot of things to do.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL
HAS BEEN VERY BUSY
THIS YEAR.

The Student Council attained many goals this year, among them the acquisition of the new juke box and the student parking lot. They also sponsored an after Easter dance, which was a huge success.

Lettermens' Club

Admission to the Lettermen's Christmas party was "A toy for a tot." The gifts were presented to the Sisters of Charity for underprivileged children.
The club also sponsored several movies to raise money for their annual outing

Science Club

The Science Club, this year under the direction of Mr. Torpy, is celebrating its fourth year at S.J.V. It has proved to be educational and inspiring to its members and the rest of the student body. This has been accomplished by its efforts in securing interesting talks and arranging field trips in science.

Officers of Science Club from Left to Right: R. Henderson, sec.-treas.; L. Kline, pres.; J. Mulherin, vice pres., a friend, and Mr. Torpy, Moderator

Drama Club

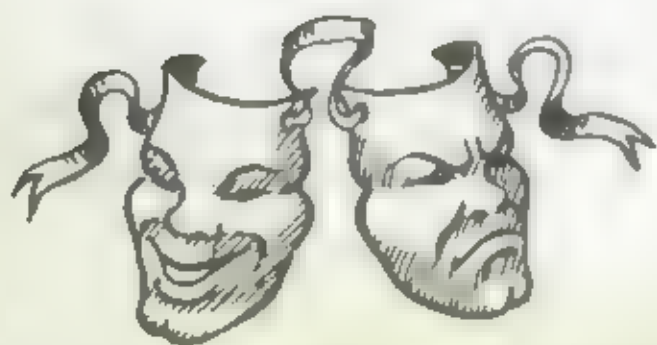

Top Row: A. Testa, R. Hollow, J. Mulhenn, H. Figueroa, W. Jessie, T. Vinson, R. Ferrant

Spirit in Contests

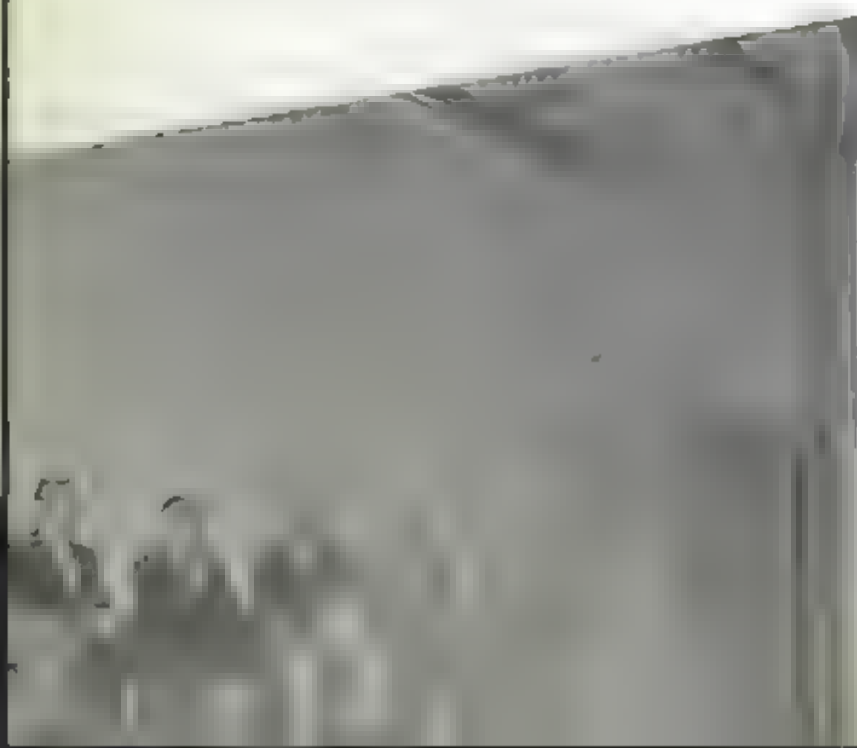

Voice of Democracy Contestants, Left to Right. N. Michelena, A. Galli, M. Bowler, D. Fields, J. Ramirez, J. Mulherin, R. Henderson, L. Kline, J. Bonelli, G. Sayeh

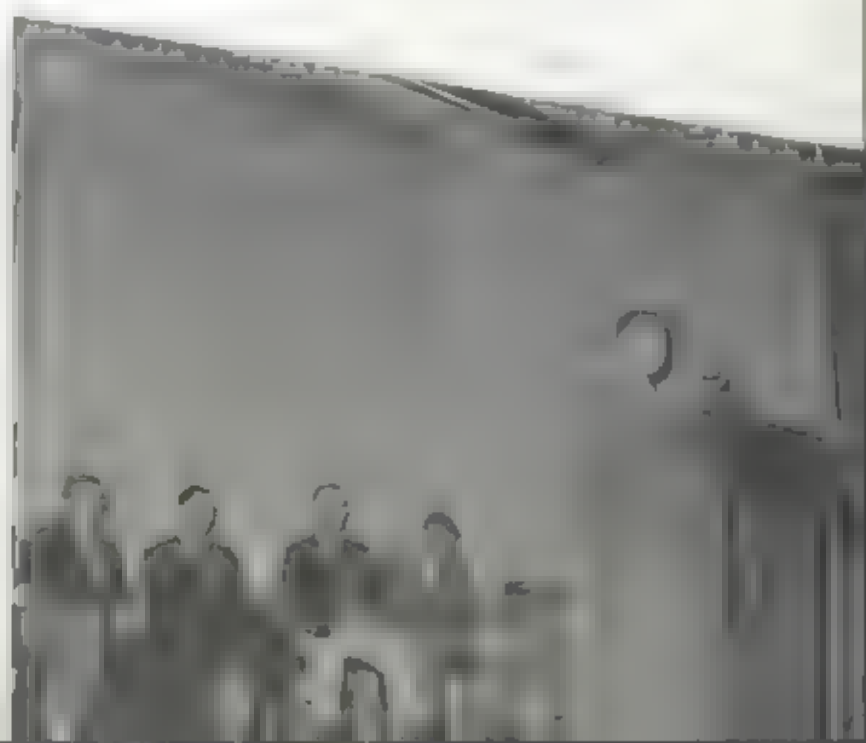

During the course of the school year, students from our school participated in numerous contests. The most important of these were "The Voice of Democracy," which several of the students entered and the Examiner's United States History Contest, which eight seniors and two juniors entered. The Italian government sponsored an essay contest in which Mario Brunetti won a gold medal.

Another senior, Gerald Marvray, took top honors in the Los Angeles Examiner's Bill of Rights contest.

Spirit in Assemblies

Numerous assemblies were held throughout the year. The Pep Club had charge of the gatherings held before each athletic event. Yells, skits and guest speakers were the order of the day.

Former football coach, Mike Pacaravich, gives stirring talk to students.

At the final rally of the football season, contender for the Welterweight Crown, Vince Martinez, addressed the student body.

Mothers' Club Annual Dinner

A pre-Lenten Mardi Gras dinner party was the hi-light of the Mothers' Club activities for the year. Proceeds were used for the purchase of equipment for the science department, as well as books for the Library.

Not Pictured: Mrs. Cletus Kinninger, corresponding secretary. Seated as Tea Hostesses are Mrs. James Joyce and Mrs. James Brown.

Mothers show Spirit

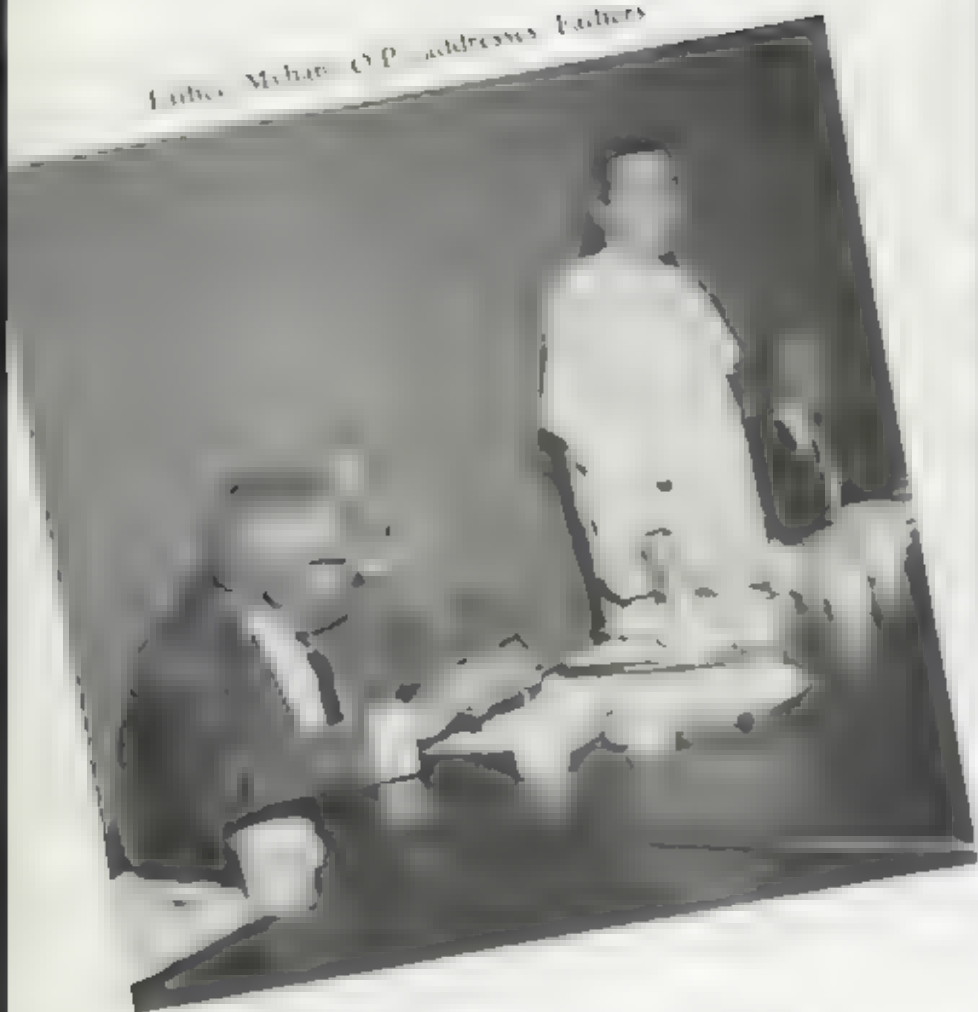

Even though we often do not show to our mothers the devotion which they show us, we have many secret notes of love and gratitude in our hearts.

Our mothers help to make our life more useful and agreeable at school by the many little sacrifices they undergo to furnish the extras which the school could not otherwise afford.

Thank you, Fr. Myhan

Because of ill health our former principal, Fr. John Myhan, O.P., was forced to resign. The announcement of his leaving was a surprise and shock to the student body. The boys had grown to know him not only as their severest critic but as their best friend.

Sports

This year's football team cannot be considered great, but it was unique in two things — courage and spirit. Everyone from the captains to the subs played for the team. Even though The Nobles did not compile an impressive record, under the direction of Benny Lefebvre and Frank Boyle, it was the only team to score three touchdowns on the C.I.F. champs, Mater Dei, in four years.

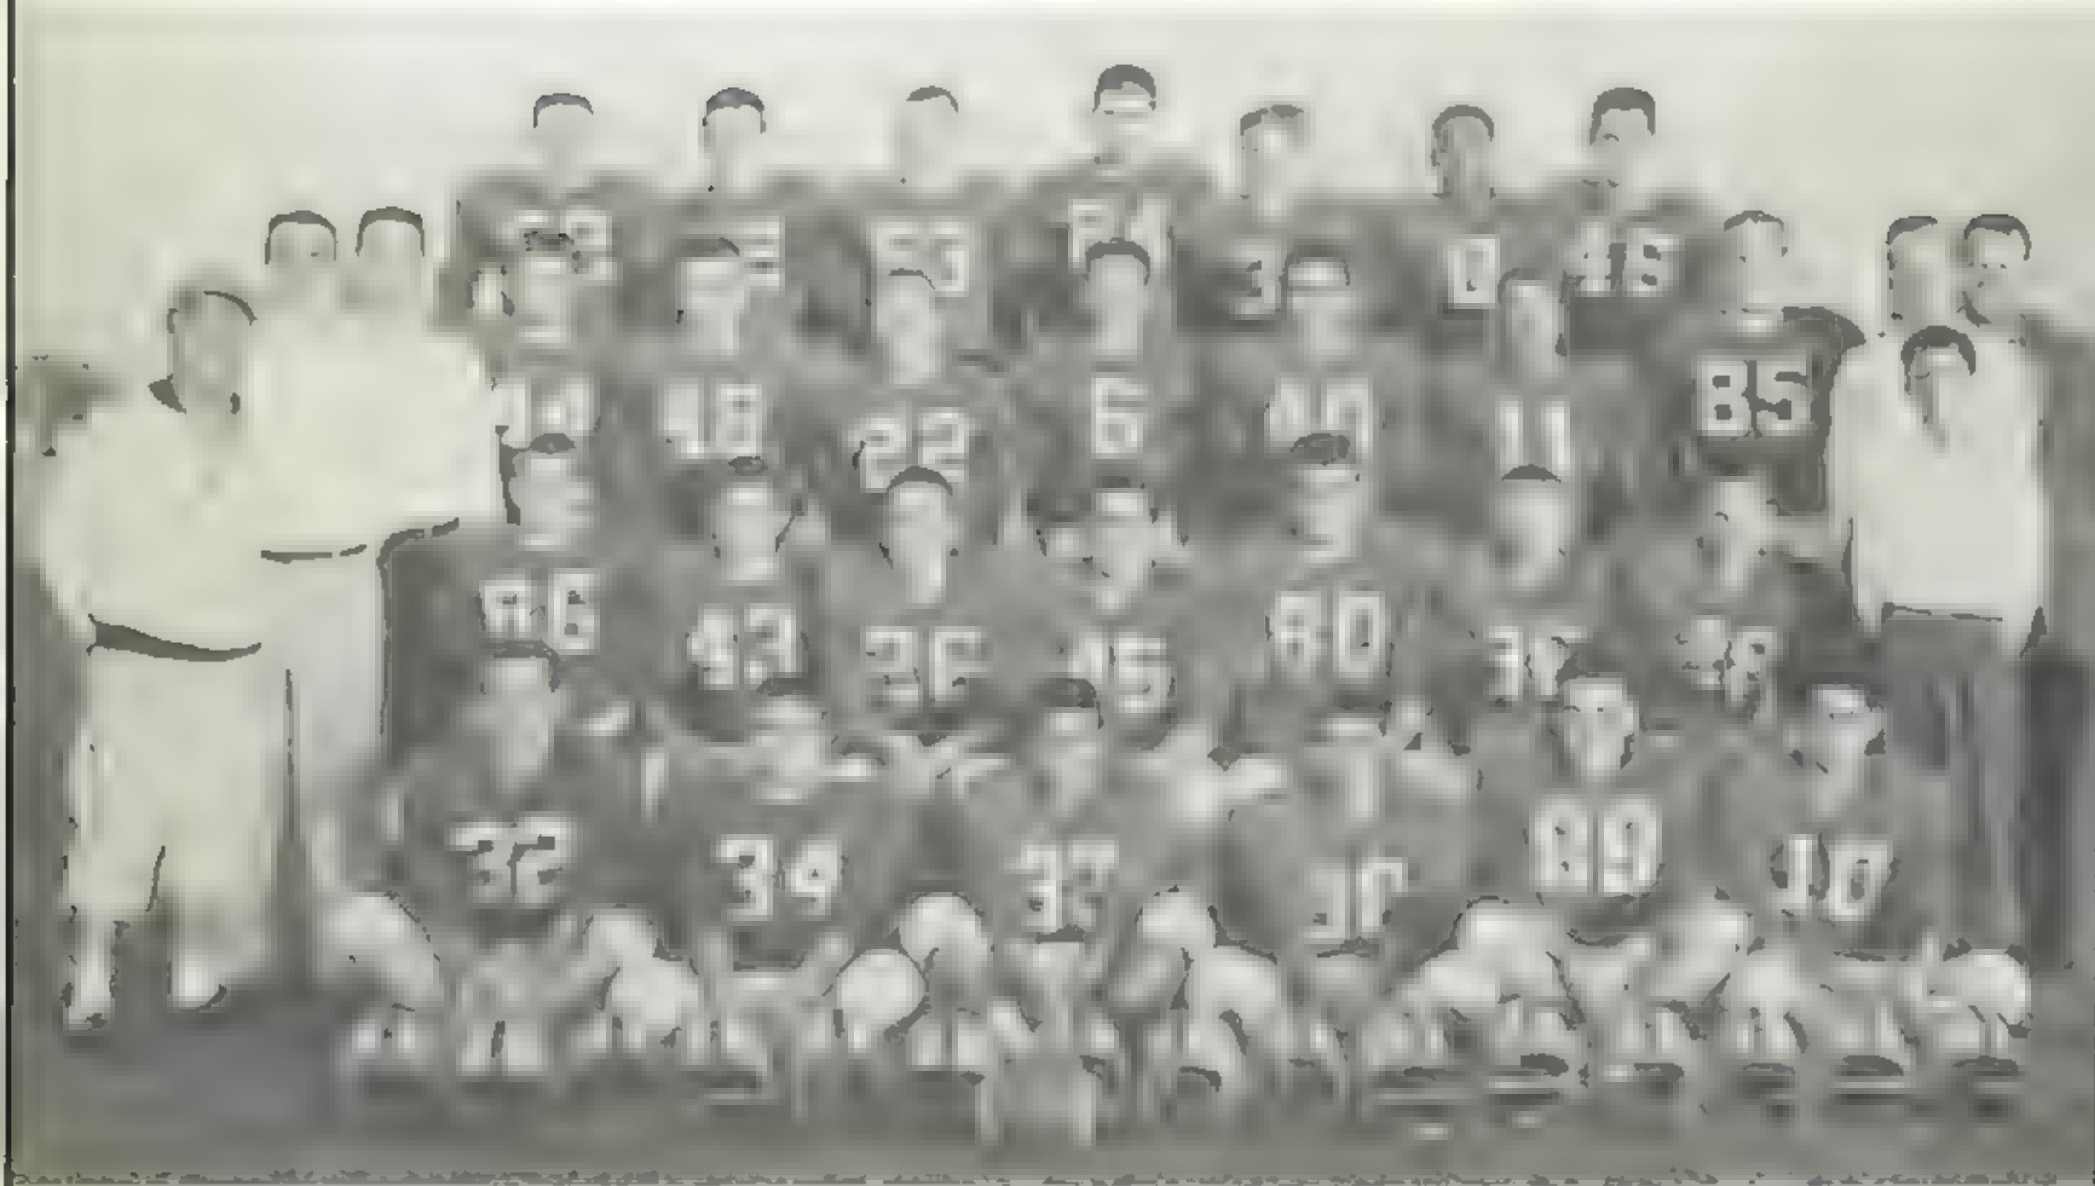

You can be sure that every last man who was on the varsity is proud to have played on the 1957 team.

Jerry (36) sinks a deadly left handed jump shot

The 1957-58 Vianney basketball team was by far the best to take the floor in our short history. Under the superb direction of Don Strasburg, the team brought home the first trophy in Vianney's history by winning the consolation championship of the tough and rugged Santa Clara Tournament and surprised any number of people by being the "Cinderella" team of the Parochial League. Another honor that this noble quintet brought the school was that of having the league's leading scorer and Player of the Year in the Parochial League in All-League Guard Jerry Hackworth

Santa Clara Champs

On the 27th, 28th, and 29th of December, the Noble Five made the long trip to Oxnard to play in the annual Santa Clara Tournament. On the opening night the team played the host team, Santa Clara, and went down fighting by five points in the last seconds. In the second game the polished Noble Quintet, led by Jerry Hackworth, broke the tourney scoring record by outclassing Moor Park, 66 to 33. In the championship game against Simi, the Men of St. John's began to feel the weariness of travel. The game was a see-saw battle until Jim Joyce, in the last two seconds of play, sank a 15 ft. jump shot. The rest is history.
